

SOUTH BEND'S GREATEST CLOTHING SALE NOW ON IN FULL BLAST

Our store has been crowded, packed and jammed with eager buyers from far and near who are taking advantage of an opportunity that has never before presented itself to the people of South Bend and surrounding vicinity to buy such high grade clothing, furnishing goods, hats, caps, leather goods at prices that you would have to pay for a much inferior grade of merchandise elsewhere.

Do not compare this sale to many so called sales that have taken place in this community, for we will make this the greatest and most bonafide and legitimate cut price sale that was ever attempted by any firm in the entire state.

Be here TOMORROW and every day to help celebrate South Bend's Greatest Bargain Event.

FIVE HUNDRED BIBLE STUDENTS PRESENT

Union Meeting of the Classes of the City is Held at the First Presbyterian Church.

Nearly 500 representatives of Bible classes from all the churches of the city were present at the union meeting held at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. Miss Margaret Van Fleet led in the special song service that was held from 7:30 to 7:45 o'clock. The songs were old revival hymns and were taken from the books that were used during the Billy Sunday campaign last summer. Rev. Charles A. Lippincott led in the opening prayer, and after the song service Miss Van Fleet spoke of the past work of the Bible classes and the outlook of the future. The purpose of the union meeting was to arouse more enthusiasm among the members and to strengthen the membership of the various classes.
